PROTECTING THE INNOCENT.
The president has again emphasized his broad humanitarianism and the spirit of America by the firm stand which would not permit the stopping of the shipment of dairy products to Germany—products needed for the sustenance of women and children. It took a firm courageous stand on the part of the president to accomplish this, but the position is one which Americans will approve and which should give Germany something to think about as they contrast this act with the ruthlessness of their own.

THE REWARD OF MERIT.
That virtue does have its own reward is again shown by the statement that Illinois and those states that have furnished the greater number of volunteers will not be required to furnish as many men as other states or the first draft. Illinois was one of the first states to fill its regular army quota. In the east before the war began was customary to prate about patriotism there and the coldness of west, but these were "vain words about deeds" for when the test of Illinois and other states count "western" from the Atlantic coast point, far exceeded the records of the eastern states in furnishing enlistments. Now the proper reward is to be made.

MR. HOOVER WILL CONSULT.
A good deal of opposition to the appointment of Mr. Hoover as food administrator is disappearing as people come to a better understanding of what he proposes to do. For a time men interested in the cattle industry were strongly opposed to his proposed work and really felt very fearful about the results upon the industry. Recently he gave assurance to the officers of livestock organizations that no changes would be made affecting them until after consultation with them and a thorough canvassing of the whole situation. No doubt the same plan will be followed with other lines of industry which will be affected by the food administrator's orders, for no one knows better than Mr. Hoover that the success of his work depends upon his ability to disturb business conditions as little as possible and to engage the support and sympathy of business men as largely as possible.

WAR POSITIONS.
The head of the new license board which the U. S. embargo will necessitate will probably be Vance McCormick, who served as chairman of the Democratic national committee during the last campaign. The vice chairman is likely to be Edward N. Hurley, formerly member of the federal trade commission. No doubt both of these deserving Democrats are personally well qualified for the important duties which direction of this board will mean. But it does seem that in these days of such great national peril that the president should be giving less attention to the political qualifications of men who are to be active in helping solve the country's war problems. There were many men of both parties who earnestly hoped that the president would have a coalition cabinet in order to assemble as advisers the ablest men of both parties. But since this was not done, it is only reasonable to hope that the president will yet be led to consider fitness without regard to politics, as the first qualification for positions necessitated by the war.

THE BOND ELECTION PROPOSALS

Tuesday, July 24, the voters of Jacksonville will have the opportunity of expressing their views on the question of issuing $17,000 in bonds for the motorization of the fire department and $23,000 in bonds to pay off the city's public improvement bond deficiency. These are questions of public policy and women as well as men will have a right to vote. The figures have been presented to show that the motorization of the fire department will mean increased efficiency and thus greater protection from fire loss, and furthermore, economy, as the department can be operated at less cost if motor equipment is used than is true now with horse drawn equipment.

Feed for the horses is very high and each year there is a considerable loss occasioned by the fact that a new horse or two must be purchased to replace others. While this lessening of the cost of operation is worth while, it is not the main argument in favor of motorization. With motor driven equipment practically equal fire protection will be given to all parts of the city, as apparatus so driven can cover the distance from the fire department to any part of the city in a very brief space of time. Some of the heaviest fire losses in the history of the city have been occasioned by the fact that the long distance from the department has made it impossible for the horses to draw the heavy equipment rapidly.

Motorization will also mean the addition of fire fighting equipment of the most modern kind. The state board of insurance underwriters has for several years been recommending this very change and these recommendations are based on a knowledge of conditions and a realization that fire department motorization means a lessening of fire risks.

The need for raising $23,000 to pay off the public improvement bond deficiency is urgent. Scattered all over the country are the innocent purchasers of Jacksonville public improvement bonds who have for years been demanding their money and the city has not been able to pay them. The greater part of this deficiency was occasioned by the Morrissey shortage. The bondsmen paid their full obligation yet a large sum remains and this, together with the deficiencies from other causes, brings the total up to approximately $23,000.

This is a debt that the people of Jacksonville owe. It is a moral obligation, and a legal obligation, and some time it must be paid. The longer the delay the greater the expense and any honest taxpayer who calmly looks at the facts and secures a thorough understanding of conditions will be in favor of meeting this bond deficiency. There is no better time than now to raise this sum by the issuance of bonds and thus wipe out a stain on the city's record and establish its credit once more. This last statement is made advisedly for those who know are well aware that the city's credit has not been a thing to be proud of, and firms outside of the city have been very timid about making sales to Jacksonville, fearful that when pay time came around that the money would not be forthcoming.

It is proposed to issue bonds for the two purposes mentioned. Just about two weeks intervene between the present and election day. It is the duty of every citizen to look into the facts about these two matters—to ask questions about any point in doubt—and then when they are sure that they have secured the real facts, to vote without prejudice.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

The Soldiers
It's sad to see the young men go, away from all they love and know, to where war's beacons burn; and poignantly it pains the heart to feel, while watching them depart, that they may not return. We calmly read of others' sons who went to face the Prussian guns in yonder endless fray; we gave the tribute of a sigh to Englishmen who went to die—but they were far away. We cannot truly sympathize with foreigners; an ocean lies between them and our doors; the story of their sorrows seems like some vague horror seen in dreams, when wintry tempest roars. Now we behold our own depart; thru mists of tears we see them start, the laddies we have reared, perhaps to see our home no more, perhaps to come back to our door, all stricken, maimed and scarred. It racks the soul to see them stride away, away, with noble pride, so young, so brave, so strong; we see them march in fine array, and then kneel down somewhere and pray that war may cease ere long. It breaks the heart to see them go; but better far to face the foe and for their country fall, than to pursue a peaceful trade, and by base stratagem evade that country's urgent call.

WILL SOON DISTRIBUTE RELIEF FUND

At a conference held in Gov. Lowden's office in Springfield Monday plans were discussed for the distribution of the state fund for the storm sufferers of Mattoon, Charleston and other Illinois cities which were visited by the recent tornado. The distribution of the fund is to be made in a short time, as soon as the amounts are checked up. The state of Illinois made an appropriation of $275,000 for the relief work and another fund of approximately $285,000 was raised by societies and individuals resident in the state. The spending of the state fund will be in charge of Adjutant General Dickson, and he will be assisted by Charles Thurman, acting chief clerk in the adjutant general's office. The conference Monday was attended by a delegation representing Mattoon and Charleston.

PROPOSES PLAN TO DISPOSE OF CANS

Danville Firm Offers Millions For Red Cross in Exchange for Refuse

The Fairweight Standard Scale Co. of Danville is sending letters to city councils to pay $5 a ton for old tin cans and cooking utensils, and suggests that this money be turned in to the Red Cross treasury. The company's plan is to interest clubs in the proposal and to thus secure an organized effort for the collection of these empty tin cans, which have in the past proved an expense to the householder rather than a source of income.

In the letter sent out the company proposes that if the tin cans and utensils are placed in gunny sacks near the alley or curbing, that they will bear the expense of collection and will pay the price indicated for all the goods thus obtained. The company proposes to locate plants in various parts of the country to receive these shipments and its estimate is that in this way a fund of two million dollars annually can be secured for the Red Cross society. True, the price of $5 a ton seems low, but when it is remembered that the offer is for materials which have in the past been considered entirely as refuse, the proposal is certainly one which merits investigation.

Social Events

Remembered J. P. Hillerby's Birthday.

A picnic in honor of the eighty fifth birthday of J. P. Hillerby was held Tuesday at Nichols park, the pleasant event having been planned by members of the family of the guest of honor.

Mr. Hillerby has spent fifty five years of his life in America. He was born in England and during the earlier years of his life was engaged in the dry goods business. Subsequently he became a Methodist minister and devoted many years to this work, retiring about five years ago. He has two daughters, Mrs. Charles Hopper of this city, and Mrs. Mary Mendell of Kansas and one son, Carl S. Hillerby of this city.

Miss Edna Colby to Wed H. A. McCracken.

The approaching marriage of Miss Edna Colby, this city, and Mr. Harry A. McCracken of Marion, Ind., was announced Monday evening at a picnic luncheon, served in Miss Colby's honor at Nichols park by members of Miss Marie Finney's class of Central Christian church, the Delta Alphas. Miss Colby will leave the latter part of the week for Indiana and Mr. McCracken will meet her in LaFayette, where the ceremony will be performed.

Mr. McCracken was a resident of Jacksonville until a few weeks ago when he was promoted from the local plant of Swift & Co. to a more responsible position in Marion. Miss Colby was reared and educated in this city and her circle of friendship is a wide one. Mr. McCracken came to this city from Manchester and will receive the congratulations of a veritable host of friends. Miss Colby is the daughter of Mrs. Augusta Waggener, 297 West College street. After their marriage the young people will make Marion their home.

"THE NEIGHBORS" PROVED PLEASING PERFORMANCE

Young People of Grace M. E. Church Gave Zona Gale's Comedy Tuesday Night in Highly Creditable Manner

"The Neighbors," one of Zona Gale's best comedies, has seldom been presented with such dramatic ability and spirit as was the case Tuesday evening when members of the Standard Bearers' society, with assistance of others of the young people, rendered the play at Grace M. E. church to an audience which was large and appreciative as well. A two-part program was given.

There was first a musical program with instrumental numbers by Miss Mabel Wyatt and vocal solos by Robert Shoemaker. Miss Luella Armentrout was Mr. Shoemaker's accompanist. Then followed the play, which proved a financial as well as a dramatic success. The members of the cast follow: Grandma—Miss Katharine Madden. Mrs. Dianthia Able—Miss Rose Ranson. Inez, her daughter—Miss Elizabeth Cogswell. Peter—Joel Crouch. Ezra Williams—Paul Mohr. Mrs. Moran—Miss Florence Madden. Mrs. Trot—Miss Nellie Priest. Mrs. Carry Ellsworth—Miss Mary LaRue.

The proceeds will go toward the missionary pledge of the Standard Bearers.

After the performance the young people who presented the play were entertained at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. F. B. Madden and a very pleasant social time was spent with social conversation and music. In addition to the cast there were present Henry Best, Wilbur Madden, Reginald Reid and Misses Ruth Hillerby, Sarah Delbrick, Esther Davis, Mary Shoemaker, Dorothy Towle and Grace Marshall.

ORLEANS COUNTRY CLUB HAS ANNUAL PICNIC

Seventy-Five Members and Guests Present for Delightful Day Tuesday at Rural Residence of Mrs. James T. Holmes.

The annual picnic of the Orleans Woman's country club was held Tuesday at the hospitable home of Mrs. James T. Holmes and so enjoyable did the event prove for each of the seventy-five members and guests who were present that none will soon forget this picnic meeting of 1917.

At 1 o'clock there was served a bountiful dinner, cafeteria fashion, on the lawn. Mrs. Ed Tindall, Mrs. Lloyd Magill and Mrs. Charles Davis assisted the hostess in serving. Just after the meal there was a musical program, Mrs. Fred Moeller and Miss Blanche Cunningham giving two duet numbers on the piano. They first played "A Rustle Dance" following with "A Comrade in Arms." The minutes were read by the secretary and then all joined in the club song which Mrs. Holmes herself wrote. Misses Helen and Julia Holmes, daughters of the hostess, favored the company with a vocal number.

"English and American Home Life and Women Contrasted" was the theme of Mrs. W. H. Hinrichsen in the presentation of a very interesting subject. "The Value of a Hobby" was handled in capable manner by Mrs. Rosa Strawn and when the roll was called each member answered with description of some hobby, either her own or one belonging to a friend. "Riley and Some of his Poems" was the subject of Mrs. Frank E. Drury.

The program was brought to a pleasing close by a song, "The American Plan" given by Misses Tillie Richardson, Violet Davis, Ada Vasey, Harriet Sheppard and Helen Holmes, to accompaniment of Miss Blanche Cunningham.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held two weeks hence at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hinrichsen of Alexander.

MORTUARY

Hall
An Aurora paper contains the notice of the death of Sybil Norton Hall, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Hall. The young woman now deceased was born in this city November 4, 1899, when her parents were resident at the School for the Blind, where her grandfather, the late Frank H. Hall, was superintendent. When a child of two years old she went with her parents to Fairview farm in the vicinity of Aurora. The paper from Aurora gives the following facts about her death: The funeral was held Saturday at the family residence.

"Last winter when she became ill she persistently and firmly refused, in spite of every protest, to lay aside her studies, continuing them even after she was confined to her bed, and sending written synopses of her work to her teachers. She had planned greatly on her 'commencement' and so unable to attend the exercises when her class was graduated from west high school last month, she received the coveted and well-earned diploma. After this was over, her strength seemed suddenly to fail and she rapidly reached a condition that made the loved ones watching her so closely, realize they must bow to the inevitable.

"The last chapter has been written in this brief but lovely life. Every chapter is filled to overflowing with golden memories of her sweet unselfish character; but the benediction that falls upon the world at the close of the book suggests the thought that while we are giving so much time and money to alleviate the suffering caused by our great world-war, we would do well also to give generously of time and money to subjugate this ever-present foe to humanity, which year after year is taking one-seventh of all our people, and which often so ruthlessly selects as its victim the unfolding beauty and glory of our young womanhood and manhood."

MATRIMONIAL

Ward-Lindsey

Lewis Ward of Sinclair and Miss Edith Lindsey of Litterberry were united in marriage Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. George T. Wetzel at home on East College avenue. The young people were attended. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lindsey of the Litterberry neighborhood, and has the high regard of a wide circle of friends. The groom has for a number of years operated a farm in the Sinclair vicinity, and he and his bride will begin housekeeping there immediately upon their return from a short wedding journey to Chicago and various northern points.

Moore-Leggett
Howard D. Moore and Miss Elizabeth M. Leggett were united in marriage by the Rev. F. B. Madden at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leggett, 208 South Main street, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Relatives and immediate friends were present. The couple expect to leave soon for McCook, Neb., to make their home.

Both young people are well and favorably known in Jacksonville, their native city. Many are the words of congratulation which attend them as they begin wedded life.

Mrs. Joseph A. Johnson and little daughter, Helen Francis, of Terre Haute, Ind., arrived in Jacksonville Tuesday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Belle Scott. Mrs. Johnson is here because of a blood infection which is evidenced in her arm. She will be under surgical attention here and will be at the home of her mother just north of the city on the Sandusky road.

YOUNG SON OF DR. WOLFE AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIM
Suffers Broken Hip When He Falls in Front of Car Driven by D. E. Kennedy Early Tuesday Evening—Taken to Hospital
Albyn Wolfe, 11 year old son of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Wolfe, 222 Pine street, is at Our Savior's hospital with a fractured hip bone, the result of an accident which happened early Tuesday evening in front of the residence of S. O. Shuff, 750 West North street, when the boy fell from a bicycle and was hit by a car driven by D. E. Kennedy. Young Wolfe was riding his wheel by the side of his father's car, his hand on the fender for support. The boy's cap blew off and without anticipating danger he turned his bicycle, riding directly in front of Mr. Kennedy's machine. The injury was seen at once to be a very serious one. Drs. J. W. Hairgrove and W. P. Duncan were called and the boy was taken soon to the hospital for surgical treatment. Although the injury may prove slow in healing, there is much reason to hope that no permanent harm may result and that the boy in the course of months may recover the full use of the injured limb.
Neither Dr. Wolfe nor Mr. Kennedy were driving at high speed and from all accounts the accident seems one which can hardly be blamed either upon the boy or the driver of the car which struck him. Mr. Kennedy is said to have been but forty or fifty feet behind Dr. Wolfe's car and thus had no time to swerve when the young cyclist made the sudden turn and wheeled into his machine.

CLASS ROOM LIBRARIES IN SCHOOLS OF CITY

Fund of Seven Hundred Dollars Set Aside by Library Board Tuesday to Establish Branches in Each of the School Buildings.

Class room libraries are to be established in each of the grade schools of the city, according to provision made Tuesday by the public library board, assembled for the monthly meeting. A fund of $700 was set aside for this purpose. Mr. Perrin has been very favorable to the idea and the board of education has furnished co-operation in carrying out the project. The library will furnish the books and will supervise their circulation. The board will furnish facilities for care and transportation. Each library will contain from twenty-five to thirty books for each grade, making a collection of one hundred and fifty to two hundred volumes for each of the buildings.

Books for the class room libraries will be secured at an early date and the plan is to have the work of installation complete before the term is far advanced. Such co-operation between public library and school has been carried on in many cities and where the plan has been given fair trial excellent results have been forthcoming. In New York State school libraries were established a number of years ago and the project there has seemed the best possible solution of a problem which concerns librarian and teacher alike—that of effectively directing the children's reading.

The details of the plan are incomplete, it is possible that the books will not be kept in the same room. The volumes are each selected with regard to the age and capabilities of the pupil and in many schools it has been found best to have the books located in several rooms.

Many Rural Borrowers. In her report for the month just past, Miss Barrette, the librarian, called attention to a distinct increase in the number of rural borrowers. As the library is supported by municipal tax, a small fee is charged those who reside outside the city limits. This amount is small in comparison with the benefits to be gained, however, and is a source of gratification to the library board and staff that the number of country people who are using the library is increasing.

PEGS IN GROUND ARE ANNOYING. Complaint has been made because persons grazing cows or horses on Webster avenue south of Mound avenue drive stakes in the roadway to which they tie the animals. These stakes have proved a source of annoyance to a number of automobile drivers and some of the property owners and auto drivers are making vigorous complaint.

RECRUITS COMING IN FOR COMPANY B

Lieut. Dickson Has Secured a Number of New Men in Recent Days—Company Strength Near 130 Mark.

Lieut. Harrison A. Dickson reports that the past few days recruits have been coming in for Co. B in a very satisfactory way. However, he still wants more and hopes before the company is ordered to a mobilization camp that he will have secured enough to bring the company up to full strength which is 150 men.

Lieut. Dickson in the past few days has secured ten recruits and is giving them daily drill in the formations. The men hike to the grounds of the Illinois School for the Deaf each evening where drill work is had and then hike back to the army. By this method Lieut. Dickson hopes to have the men proficient and in good physical condition when they join the company.

The men who have enlisted are: George Birdsell, Carl Birdsell, Norman Clark, Harry W. Hughes, Raymond Henderson, Porter Johnson, Dock Johnson, John Meskill, Thomas Poppewell and Edward Walton. This brings the strength of the company to about 130. The recruiting office in the armory is open each day until 9 o'clock and any young men wishing to enlist will find Lieut. Dickson on the job.

MRS. KIRKPATRICK IMPROVING. A letter from Chicago states that Mrs. Anna Kirkpatrick, wife of Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick, is recovering in a gratifying way from a surgical operation performed at Wesley Memorial hospital. Mrs. Kirkpatrick had for a long time refused to go to a hospital for surgical treatment but finally her condition became such that she consented. Members of the family have no doubt that she will be permanently benefited and that her recovery will be rapid. Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick, who is in Chicago, will return the latter part of the week and will fill his regular Sunday appointments.

PAVING HEARING PROCEEDS. The taking of evidence in the public hearing on the proposed pavement in the loop district was concluded yesterday about 3 o'clock. Later the jurors went on a tour of inspection to view the condition of the streets it is proposed to pave and also to get some idea of the condition of abutting property. This morning the jury will meet at 9 o'clock and listen to argument by the attorneys. The instructions will be given and the jurors will retire to consider their findings, and must either affirm the assessment roll or revise it in accordance with their own ideas.

GIVE OUT REPORT ON FOOD SITUATION

ponding flow from the farms into the interior terminals. This year, owing to the shortage of shipping, the allied supplies must proceed over a large period of the year and will, during the fall months, apparently average 20,000,000 to 25,000,000 bushels per month.

"We must therefore expect a glut in our interior terminals during a considerable period. The financial resources of the grain are probably insufficient to carry this extra load without the help of speculators and moreover, the consolidation of practically all foreign buyers in the hands of the allied buyer has further tended to diminish the resources of capital available by putting a number of firms out of business, limits the financial capital available in export trade.

Producer Will Face Slump.
 "The net result of this situation is that unless some strong and efficient government action is immediately undertaken, the American wheat grower will be settled and brought into play the American producer will face a slump in wheat and in any event the price of export wheat will be dictated by a single agency and the American consumer will be faced with the situation that a large part of the essential breadstuff has passed into the hands of speculators; for some one must buy and hold not only the normal flow from the farmer but this probable glut."

4.—With great reduction in the consumption of wheat bread now fortunately in progress the employment of our mills must be greatly diminished, and with the reduction of domestic flour production and our daily feed from wheat residues will be greatly curtailed. Therefore we must induce foreign buyers to accept flour instead of wheat.

Vital to Protect Producers

In order to do justice to the producers, who have shown great patriotism in a special effort to increase production in 1917 and to further stimulate the effort in 1918, it is absolutely vital that we shall protect the farmer from a slump in price this year, due to a glut above or from the uncontrolled decisions of any one buyer. I am informed that most of the allied countries have fixed the price of wheat at the farmer at $1.80 per bushel and many of their producers believe that as allied buyers it is our duty to furnish wheat at a price which delivered to them will not exceed that domestic price, in other words, about $1.50 per bushel, Chicago.

Neither their responsible officials nor I hold this view because I consider that the stimulation to production, if for no other reason is in the long run in the interest of the people. There is, however, a limit to the success which so trespasses upon the rights of the consumer as to defeat its own object thru strikes, raises in wages, and social disturbances in the country. It is with the view to finding a solution to these problems filled with the greatest dangers to both producers and consumers, that legislation has been proposed and passed for speedy enactment.

Three Facts Stand Out Plainly
The proposed food administration has conferred with many hundreds of men engaged in production and distribution and has investigated the conditions of the consumers in many centers of agricultural production. Three facts stand out plainly enough in our investigations. First, that in this situation the farmer will find protection as to the price of his product, and second, that large masses of the people, especially in the cities, are being actually starved—starved, because they are not getting enough, due to the exorbitant prices of food and that these conditions unless remedied be found are likely to repeat themselves in even more serious form at this time next year; and, third, the speculator, legitimate or illegitimate, has taken a large part of the money now being paid by the consumer.

—It seems to be overlooked in the quarters that the marketing of year's wheat is surrounded with circumstances new to history and the old distributing safeguards torn away by isolation from the world markets abroad and the creation of a free export market.

spread of the disease in the American military forces. The body is also preparing to care for the returned tuberculosis soldiers and those suffering from the disease in the civilian population. The statistics were furnished the committee by the department of vital statistics of the state board of health.

The tuberculosis committee will be made up of one member in each county and is headed by Dr. George Thomas Palmer, who is also president of the Illinois Tuberculosis association and was recently appointed director of the state department of health. The names of members to carry out this important patriotic service in each county will be announced during the coming week and the list will include many of the most prominent men and women in the state.

Tuberculosis has become the most serious medical war problem facing the warring nations of Europe. France is said to be staggering under the burden of a half million of her citizens incapacitated by wounds of battle and another half million incapacitated by active tuberculosis, and the disease spreading both among the soldiers and the civilian population.

England, which was better prepared than the other nations and better prepared than the United States, has found it necessary to look to the home counties and boroughs for the care of returned consumptive soldiers, of whom there are thousands. This plan will doubtless be followed in Illinois.

If the war continues, as it is likely to do, it will be necessary for every county in Illinois to have sanatorium facilities, dispensaries and visiting nurse service under way inside of a year. This is one of the big jobs undertaken by the council of defense committee co-operating with the state department of health and the Illinois Tuberculosis association.

At the present time there are only 250 beds for the tuberculosis in the entire state outside of Cook county, with 38,000 consumptives, and the tuberculosis dispensaries can be numbered on the fingers of one hand.

Another tremendous job which is now well under way, is that of making a census of previous tuberculosis or marked exposure to the disease of all male citizens of military age. These records will be placed in the hands of recruiting officers as a means of keeping tuberculous persons out of military service.

The council of defense committee members in each county will create a sub-committee to carry out the work in its own community.

RETURN FROM AUTO TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Strawn returned Tuesday evening from a very enjoyable automobile trip which took them to various points in the northern part of the state. They left Jacksonville July 5 in their runabout and first went to Springfield. They stopped at several other cities and reached Bloomington that night, having traveled 117 miles. The next day they drove to Pontiac, Dwight and Mazon, which brought their mileage to 209. Subsequently they went to Grand Ridge, Streator, Chillicothe and Peoria. From the latter city they drove to Pekin and then came on to Manito, Havana and the larger towns between that point and Jacksonville. The journey took them about 450 miles. For the greater part of the distance they found the roads in excellent condition and they especially enjoyed driving in the vicinity of Chillicothe, where the road follows the river for many miles. Altogether, in point of comfort and scenery, the trip was one of the best of a number that they have taken.

ASSESSMENT FIGURES FOR 1917 COMPLETED

Personal Property Increase Since Last Year is $268,797—Fifty Percent More Automobiles Owned—No Lessening of the Number of Horses.

According to figures just compiled by W. A. Masters, county assessor, and his deputies, the value of personal property in this county has increased $268,797 by comparison with the assessment for 1916. The total of personal property valuation for this year is given at $10,223,127, whereas the valuation for 1916 was $9,954,330. Nearly half of this increase can be found in the one item of automobiles as the number owned in the county has increased by fifty per cent. In 1916 there were 317 automobiles and this year the number is 1269 and the valuation $376,255. These figures of course are all as of April 1 and if the automobiles purchased since that time could be counted in the total number would be very much larger. Notwithstanding the increase in the number of automobiles, the assessors found a larger number of horses than in 1916. This year there are 12,125 horses listed, while last year the number was 11,477. There are also 150 more mules here now than was true a year ago. The number of mules listed this year is 2,353 and last year it was 2,405.

Unfortunately for the farmers, there were fewer sheep on the farms April 1, 1917, than was true in 1916. This year the number of sheep is 3,531 and last year there were 1,031 more. Since the sheep are worth more than twice as much as they were in 1916, the total figures would have been helped out considerably if a larger number of them had been owned this year. The number of hogs in 1917 was practically the same as 1916, although the cash value was almost double. The assessment figures for this year and for 1916 are given below and afford an interesting comparison.

VOTERS LEAGUE APPROVE RECORD OF ASSEMBLY

Bulletin Recently Issued Comments Favorably on Constructive Legislation Passed—Praise for Officials.

The assembly bulletin which is the official publication of the legislative voters' league of Illinois, in the last copy reviews the work of the fiftieth general assembly. Credit is given the assembly for a great deal of constructive legislation and Governor Lowden, Lieut. Gov. Oglesby and Speaker Shanahan are all praised for their part in aiding with the passage of this legislation. In reviewing the assembly's work the bulletin makes the following comment: "The record of the Fiftieth general assembly of Illinois is written."

"No general assembly in recent times has made so good a record for constructive legislation. It set a new standard for future legislatures in this regard."

"The Fiftieth general assembly is epochal in that it went further than any modern body of Illinois lawmakers in redeeming campaign pledges of party platforms. Both Republicans and Democrats accepted responsibility for making good on campaign promises and as a result serious consideration was given to every legislative question discussed in the last state campaign."

"Much of the credit for the constructive work of the session is due to Governor Lowden. He gave valuable assistance to the lawmakers at every turn and in the various messages which he sent to the assembly, he pointed out in a friendly way the duties of the legislators to the people who elected them."

Pledges are Kept.

"In his initial statement, immediately the session convened, he declared that 'party pledges must be held as sacred as obligations incurred in other fields' and that 'public business is the most important of all our business.'"

"The governor gave his active co-operation in the passage of the administrative code bill, the private bank regulation act, the constitutional convention resolution, the $60,000,000 hard roads bond issue measure, reform of election laws and other measures of special importance to the people."

"While the appropriations passed by the legislature exceeded by nearly $3,000,000 the sum voted by the last assembly, the proportionate increase is much smaller than for many years. If no further appropriations are needed during the present period, the increase will amount to only six per cent."

The legislatures of other states have found it necessary to increase their expenditures to a far greater extent. In Michigan the approprichased since that time could be counted in the total number would be very much larger. Notwithstanding the increase in the number of automobiles, the assessors found a larger number of horses than in 1916. This year there are 12,125 horses listed, while last year the number was 11,477. There are also 150 more mules here now than was true a year ago. The number of mules listed this year is 2,353 and last year it was 2,405.

tion increase this year over that of 1916 is eighteen per cent. California expenditures during the next biennium will jump forty-two per cent over those of the 1915 period, while the Ohio legislature has found it necessary to make provision for expenditures amounting to nearly fifty per cent more than in 1915.

"In the handling of its own financial matters the assembly has surpassed all previous legislatures for efficient management and careful expenditure of its funds."

"Governor Lowden established a new Illinois record for vetoing measures during the closing days. Altogether he disapproved sixty-nine bills and permitted 113 measures to go upon the statute books without his signature. He signed 225 bills."

Vast Number of Bills.

"The legislature passed 407 measures, 137 originating in the senate and 270 in the house. The number of bills introduced in both houses was 1,647. Of these 1,039 and 608 offered in the lower body and 539 in the senate. This was the largest number of bills ever introduced in an Illinois legislature. In 1913 1,617 bills were introduced in the two houses."

"There was little criticism of legislative procedure in the house. On the senate side, however, improvements are needed. Committee abuses were reported and the large number of standing committees prevented a high average of attendance at most meetings. One of the most important improvements needed is the keeping of roll call records by committees."

"Both houses were fortunate in having presiding officers of more than usual ability. While some criticism has been heard of Speaker Shanahan's attitude toward specific bills both he and Lieutenant Governor Oglesby saw that the business of lawmaking was carried forward with efficiency and dispatch. Almost every measure of importance received floor consideration."

CHANGES IN FACULTY ARE ANNOUNCED

E. R. Wood Will Be Principal of Whipple Academy—Mrs. Farrington to Teach Grammar and French

L. C. Robinson, Principal of Whipple Academy and instructor in education in Illinois college resigned his position a short time after commencement in order to accept a professorship in Whitworth College, Oregon. The trustees of the college greatly regret to lose the services of Mr. Robinson. They have appointed to succeed him E. R. Wood, a graduate of Ohio University, with a master's degree from Clark University. Mr. Wood has been teaching with great success as an instructor in Ohio University. His work in Clark University was done partly under President G. Stanley Hall. Mr. Wood came to Jacksonville for a personal interview with the authorities of the college, and the trustees feel confident that they have secured a most capable man for the position.

The trustees have also appointed Miss Florence M. Farrington, instructor in French and German to succeed Miss Alice Malone. Miss Farrington is a graduate of Colorado University and has also taken a master's degree in that institution. In addition to considerable post graduate work, Miss Farrington has had teaching experience in public high schools and recently in the University of Colorado.

GOV. LOWDEN COMING FOR THE CHAUTAUGA

Illinois Executive Will Make Address on Opening Date—Former Speaker Adkins Also Coming

The directors of the Jacksonville chautauqua have been fortunate in securing an agreement from Governor Frank O. Lowden to make an address here on the opening day. This will be Friday, Aug. 17. The directors have also secured the promise of Charles Adkins to make an address Saturday, Aug. 25. Mr. Adkins is now the head of the new agricultural department of the state. A. C. Rice, the secretary of the chautauqua, and Frank J. Heintz, director, completed these arrangements by a trip to Springfield.

A year ago Governor Lowden assured the directors that he would use every possible effort to come for the 1917 chautauqua. Such important developments have come since then that the directors at no time felt absolutely certain that the governor could arrange his plans to be present. Monday the committee visited him in Springfield and found that the short vacation he has in prospect will be in August, but he indicated his earnest desire to come to Jacksonville and promised that he would endeavor to so change his plans that the Jacksonville visit could be made.

Big Opening Day Certain He postponed giving an absolute answer until yesterday and then in a message to Mr. Heintz gave his promise to be here for the opening date. The chautauqua is thus assured a splendid address for the opening day.

Those who are familiar with Governor Lowden as a speaker know that he has the happy faculty of speaking in a plain direct way but at the same time clothing his statements in language of a class and quality that instinctively draws the attention of his auditors. The state at large has been greatly impressed with the record of Governor Lowden thus far in the governorship and have seen his earnest purpose to carry out his own pre-election pledges and those of his party. It is probably true that he has offended some of the old time political leaders of the state because of his insistence that qualification is the first essential for an appointment. The Illinois governor will certainly have something worth while to say at the chautauqua and his coming will mean a great opening day.

Adkins Authority on Agriculture

Mr. Adkins is one of the best posted agriculturists in the state. He has for years conducted large farming operations on his own account and in addition has made special investigation of agriculture and livestock affairs. He is also experienced on the platform and has the well deserved reputation of being one of the best speakers in the state. While his address will be along agricultural lines, the interest will by no means be confined to farmers.

NOTICE

All names of Morgan county young men eligible to army service will be published in the Weekly Journal today. The names will be arranged by precincts and will be in convenient form for those listed or for their friends. Copies may be secured at the Journal office.

CHINCH BUGS APPEAR

George H. Hall of Alexander, who was in Jacksonville yesterday, said that he had discovered chinch bugs in his wheat field and that some of his neighbors had reported like finds. The wet season was favorable for the destruction of chinch bugs and farmers generally have had the feeling that their crops would escape this pest. No damage can now be done the wheat or oats, but if the bugs are about in large numbers they will injure the corn. If examination shows that the chinch bugs are in many parts of the county some concerted effort must be taken to lessen the possibility of damage to the corn crop. While there is abundant indication that there will be a very large crop in Morgan county this year, every bushel will be needed, and moreover, the crop will command a high price.

1700 COOKS AND BAKERS NEEDED FOR AMERICAN ARMY Chicago, Ill., July 10.—Seventy hundred men who can cook or bake are wanted for the United States army. The need is urgent for before many weeks the armed forces of our nation will be greatly augmented by the selective draft, and Capt. Franklin R. Kenney, in charge of recruiting in the Chicago district, announced today that minor physical defects which would ordinarily bar applicants from the army kitcheners would be waived until the quota of cooks and bakers was filled. Men between the ages of 21 and 40 years are wanted.

PLACED UNDER BOND Lloyd Hart and Roy Daniels were arraigned in Justice Coons' court Tuesday and waived examination and were each placed under bond in the sum of $500 for their appearance at the November term of the circuit court. Hart and Daniels were arrested by Detective White and Officer Vieira Monday afternoon. Daniels is a mere boy, being only 14 years of age. His father furnished bond for him but Hart was unable to give bond and was placed in the county jail. The officers found some of the stolen goods on the Chicago and Alton right of way near where the robbery was committed.

Miss Gladys Knapp left Tuesday morning for Detroit, Mich., to spend the summer with relatives.

ERECT BUILDINGS AT TEXAS TRAINING CAMP

Effort Being Made to Finish Work Ahead of Other Training Camps of Country—Large Area Embraced in Camp.

San Antonio, Tex., July 10.—Construction of 515 buildings to house 40,000 men of the new national army who are to be trained at camp Wilson is under way. The contractors expect to finish them before September 1 and thus set a record for army construction work in the United States.

The firm of Stone & Webster of Boston has the contract for the Camp Wilson cantonments and has announced an intention to make an effort to finish the work here ahead of any of the other sixteen camps in the country. This will be possible, tho their start is later than some of the others, for they will have some advantages over other contractors. Railroad tracks are already in the camp grounds and with a few miles of temporary rails it will be possible to deliver lumber and material directly to each gang at work on the field. Another advantage is in the aid that can be obtained from the army in engineering help, truck transportation and similar things. The big army establishment at Fort Houston is ready to aid in an effort to save money for the government.

The new cantonments will occupy the ground on which the camps for national guard regiments were pitched last summer. Several roads were permanently improved then and under the new plans they will be of use as divisional roads supplemented by brigade and battalion roads.

Barracks for the infantry will be 43 by 130 feet, and will be two stories high with sleeping quarters on the second floor and mess-halls and kitchens on the ground floor. There will be 120 of these buildings and each will house 200 men. They will face the east so that a maximum of ventilation will be obtained from the southwest breezes. Each building will have plumbing, sewers, water supply and electric lights and they may be equipped with gas for cooking instead of the wood fires used last summer. This has not been decided however.

Besides each one of the infantry buildings a space for company formation will be left and every group of three will have sufficient space for battalions to form. Regimental, brigade and divisional maneuvers will be held on the newly acquired tract of 1187 acres east of Camp Wilson and along the banks of Salado creek. This drill field is more than a mile long and adapted to use for almost any sort of maneuver.

The barracks to house the auxiliary troops, artillery, cavalry and engineers, hospital and ambulance men and the sanitary troops will all be one story each twenty by 130 feet. Separate mess halls, kitchens and latrines will be built for them. These buildings all will be at the north end of the Camp Wilson field and will extend a mile or more towards the remount depot on the Austin road.

It is estimated that 1,280,000 square feet will be covered by the buildings for the camp and it is expected that between 4,000 and 5,000 men will be employed in erecting them. The contractors already have opened an employment bureau and are hiring every man, skilled or unskilled, who applies.

BUY COAL NOW OPERATORS ADVISE.

(Springfield Journal.) Because of the prospect of shortage of cars again next winter, mine operators in this vicinity are urging users of domestic coal to buy now, while delivery is reasonably certain, and the price as low as it will be.

By putting off the purchase of coal until forced by falling temperature, people of Springfield, one operator said yesterday, are acting foolishly. There is a probability that the price will raise this winter, and the possibility that the order for coal and delivery of coal this winter will be farther apart than ever before. People, or at least a majority of them, have always waited before this, until the day the frost comes before thinking about coal.

WILL HEAR RATE CASE. The state public utilities commission will hear evidence and arguments July 18 on the application of the steam lines of the state for the right to increase rates 15 per cent on coal and coke.

A petition for the right to advance all rates was made some time ago, but the case was continued. Under the present arrangement the classifications have been divided, and a decision will be made on rates for handling coal and coke only.

VALIDATING AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP

A Letter from Dr. Wm. A. Quayle, Methodist Episcopal Bishop of St. Louis.

From the Globe-Democrat.

St. Louis, July 9.—I have read your editorials on the two East St. Louis orgies of murder with real pride. You have spoken as America ought to speak. I thank you for those manly pronouncements. They were greatly needed.

In a Chicago paper I notice Gov. Lowden says there shall be a thorough investigation and the guilty shall be punished, whether city official, soldier official or whoever those guilty may be. May God give him grit and grace to carry that talk into effect. A dose of absolute responsibility for crimes of this sort brought home by punishment for murder of those implicated in any way in the horrors of the riots, will stop them. Nothing else will. In the same paper I see that a committee of citizens is taking things in charge, and says it will make their city a white man's town and that the blacks shall not return. This doubtless is an incorrect report.

On these two items it may be remarked: As Gov. Lowden is a brave man, by all accounts, he is needed in this crisis for citizenship. Here is multiplied murder and multiplied arson with a defenseless citizenry, and until the city shall have reimbursed them in so far as it is possible and these desperate murderers who incited and participated in these riots, shall have been meted out full justice as murderers, the necessities and the equities in the case will not have been met.

Wherever the responsibility for the crime, saloon, politics, city administration or organized labor, they should be dealt with to the extremity of the law for this horrible and wholly indefensible crime.

Regarding the second news item referred to, I hope for the repute of East St. Louis, it is untrue. This leads to the caption of this article, "American Citizenship Must Be Validated." These black people are American citizens. They were born here and are loyal to this republic. There is not a traitor or a spy among them. Query: Who is authorized to keep an American citizen out of an American town or countryside if he is tending to his business peaceably? An American citizen cannot be denied the privilege of any American community or city. How can a citizen, a committee, a city administration, an organization of any name or nature, deny an American citizen the rights of such citizenship? How dare a mayor of a city attempt to get an American citizen out of a city at the demand of any body, individual or collective? The proposition is the very depth of absurdity. Has American citizenship any validity? Is it a matter of whim or tolerance that he is around? Can any body of organized or unorganized people drive him from his rights under the declaration? If so, what is the advantage of citizenship?

We are at this point at this hour. This is a fateful hour, if rightly viewed! The rights of all American citizens is in this venture of riot. The rights of all of us are shaken to their roots. Citizens of city or country should learn once for all that it does not inhere in them to deny the privileges of municipality or occupation to any citizen of the United States. Shall an American citizen have a right to live where he will and work where he will? If so, one American citizen has all the rights of any American citizen. It was so with the ancient Roman. Shall it be less so with the modern American? Has the modern American republic degenerated as compared with the ancient Roman Empire? Paul announced Roman citizenship, and although of the despised race of the Jews, the officers were afraid.

Who dares to say the black citizen may not work? Is it organized labor? If so, why? What right has any form of labor to deny the right of any American citizen a right to labor or to life, liberty, or the pursuit of happiness? President Wilson coined a fine phrase when he wrote "The world must be safe for democracy." It is a glorious phrase if it means business; but a phrase which allows helpless men because of their color, in the South or anywhere else, to be looted, burned, hung, deprived of their privileges of law, is no honest talk. Does it mean business? Any American citizen must be liable to go anywhere on this planet and be protected, absolutely protected if he is behaving himself. That is what the phrase must mean. Safe in Mexico, China, Japan, Turkey or in Georgia or Illinois. The Lusitania, horrible as it was and is (for horror does not lessen by mere lapse of time) was not as horrible as the East St. Louis slaughters. Has an American citizen a right to claim protection of his flag abroad and not at home? The man who is an American citizen must be safe, safe anywhere in America, safe from peril, safe from labor and safe from labor. We are dead set against kaisers, but kaiserism is no less dangerous when carried on by an organization than by an individual; rather more dangerous, since it is harder to locate and punish. Let no citizen deceive himself.

Everybody's rights are at stake in this riot issue. Who ever will do the labor faithfully and well, to him must labor be open. Any interference with this must cease. No American citizen may be interfered with by any body, angered or unangered, in his right to his job. No American must be put at the hazard of his life or his safety nor be denied any of the rights appertaining to citizenship by any city, state, United States, or by a man or body of men whatever they denominate themselves. If this is not true and does not work, then the Declaration of Independence is talking humbuggery. These principles are fundamental and are all shot to pieces by the East St. Louis orgy of crime as they are by every lynching anywhere. Let no one be deceived by the color cry. When the huge majority of the human race is colored, it illy behooves the white race to continue its priggish attitude toward the color line. Provincialism in the human race problems has become absolutely obsolete in the past few months when the world has gone world wide.

Black people are American citizens. They will fight and die for America. Will all Americans willingly do that? Usually, in so-called race riots many of the rioters are foreigners who are not even citizens. America must protect its own.

Just now we are in a world-war and we need labor as we have never needed it in America; and, therefore, it is a strangely ill-timed business to burn and murder labor promiscuously or to try to drive it out. This whole procedure from the standpoint of thinking is brainless; but brainlessness is not a crime. It is a lack. But killing men needed for labor now becomes a world form of treason, and to attempt to run out of town or keep from their employment an American citizen by any citizen, non citizen or organized group of both, becomes a high crime and misdemeanor against the inalienable rights of American citizenry which must be immune from any hindrance, domestic or foreign. William A. Quayle.

RETAILERS PLAN ECONOMY

Washington, D. C., July 10.—Much interest attaches to the national conference of retail merchants called to assemble in this city today to take definite action on proposed recommendations to reduce overhead expenses in stores of all kinds as a war economy measure. The meeting has been called by the National Retail Dry Goods Association, acting on request of the Commercial Economic Board of the Council of National Defense. Following the meeting the purchasing public thruout the country will be advised as to how they can co-operate in efforts to reduce the expense budget of the retail stores and thereby help to reduce the cost of living. The move, it is expected confidently, will have the greatest tendency toward the elimination of wastage and expenses, and toward bringing and keeping business as near normal as is possible without the necessary experiments and experiences that the countries at war have been obliged to go thru.

INTEREST IN NORTH DAKOTA ELECTION

Fargo, N. D. July 10.—The national leaders of both political parties are awaiting the results of today's special election in the first congressional district of North Dakota with many evidences of anxious interest. The politicians are most largely concerned in the candidacy of John Baer, named by the Non-partisan League as its choice to succeed the late Representative Henry G. Helgesen. The participation of the Non-partisan League in the contest is regarded in some quarters as an initial attempt toward national political control on the part of the farmers' co-operative organization which already is in complete control of public affairs in North Dakota. Baer is one of three candidates entered in the contest for the congressional seat. His opponents are O. B. Burtness, Republican, and Geo. Bangs, Democrat.

Arrested on charge of having incited Leon Czolgosz to the assassination of President McKinley in 1901. Released for lack of evidence.

Was associated with Johann Most, Alexander Berkman, Julius Schwab and other New York anarchists in publication of the Freiheit. Subsequently quarreled with Most and publicly horse-whipped him.

Reported married in May, 1906, to Berkman, upon his release after serving a term of fourteen years in the penitentiary for his attempt to assassinate Henry C. Frick, the steel millionaire, during the Homestead strike.

Under an assumed name started a hair-dressing business in New York City in 1905.

On the authority of Attorney-General Bonaparte, in March, 1908, it has been declared that no legal ground can be found for deporting Emma Goldman; nor can she be barred at American ports if she leaves the country and returns.

END STALE BREAD RETURNS.

Washington, D. C., July 10.—By agreement between the National Association of Master Bakers and the Commercial Economy Board of the Council of National Defense the long standing custom of the wholesale bakers in permitting the retailers to return unsold bread will virtually cease throughout the country today.
More than 22,000 bakers, representing the wholesale trade in practically all the important cities and towns throughout the country, have agreed to abide by the promise of the association to abolish the practice. By thus compelling housewives to order for their needs and retail dealers to confine supplies to actual demand, enough waste will be eliminated to feed 200,000 persons besides releasing many employees for other necessary work.

WORLD CRISIS IS TEST OF PUBLIC SCHOOL

Is Opinion Expressed Before National Education Association in Session at Portland—School World Is Moulder of Soul-Stuff of Nation

Portland, Ore., July 10.—The world-crisis, as it affects the United States, and the part this country is playing in it, is a test of the public school, according to Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford, Superintendent of Public Instruction of Colorado, as expressed in an address before the Elementary section of the National Education association here today.
Taking as her subject "The Public School and the Nation in 1917," Mrs. Bradford declared that if the United States carried into effect its avowed policy of "righteousness to all humanity" and "sacrifice for all nations," it will be "because the American public school has, in some degree at least, fulfilled its august task confided to it by the commands
of democratic government."
"If, after this great war to end
wars shall be over," she continued,
"America functions as the supreme idealistic force in the reorganization of the world, it will be because the public schools have given to the nation a higher vision than the world
before has seen."
"This is the great task of the public school in 1917; this the mighty effort that must be made by the school people of today."
"Pointing out that non-Americans had declared the public school system of this country the "supremely distinctive feature" of the American development, Mrs. Bradford declared:
"A new vision must come to the school world of America; a vision that reveals to it itself as the moulder of the soul-stuff of the nation in the likeness of the ideal humanity."

Comparing the public school to the Casket of the Holy Grail, she added, "Let us offer ourselves to the nation as one unit in the great army of those who stand ready to give all at the nation's summons;
let us fit ourselves for the high surprise of keeping safe the immortal draught without which the national ideals must perish."

WILL MAKE ADDRESS

est of the work of the organization.

gestions for carrying on the work in work being done in this city.

NEW COMPENSATION ACT IS EXPLAINED

Miners' Union President Calls It
Most Important Piece of Legislation Enacted in Years.

One of the important pieces of legislation passed by the last general assembly was the compulsory compensation act. This law had the support of the state administration.
The measure is said to be of great benefit to labor and means that litigation will not be necessary when injuries or deaths from injuries occur
to persons engaged in hazardous occupations. Frank Farrington, president of the United Mine Workers of Illinois, has thoroughly approved the law in the following statement:

"July 1, 1917, marked an epoch in the progress of the workers of this state. On that date a compulsory workmen's compensation law became effective and thereby is ended,
so far as Illinois is concerned, many years of persistent effort on the part of the organized labor movement to accomplish that attainment Illinois is the second state where coal is mined and the fourth state in the country to secure the passage of a compulsory compensation law,
and the Illinois Miners' Union had no mean part in the attainment.

Increase Indemnities

"The indemnities for injury and death under the compulsory act are substantially increased over those paid under the elective act which meant comparatively little to our members because less than one-third of the coal companies elected to operate under the elective act. Under the compulsory act no longer need the dependents of injured miners look for the bounty of friends who can ill afford to give bounty, nor need the victims of injury be tormented by the fear of impending distress. No longer need the widow accept cheap settlement or suffer the ordeal of arguing with the employer or of going to court to determine the amount that shall be paid for the loss of her husband who has lost his life during the course of his employment; nor need she be tormented with the fear of what is to become of her fatherless children, nor need the husband during life be haunted with agonizing thoughts of what is to become of those who are near and dear to him in event of his unexpected death.

Will Minimize Accidents

Mine Workers of America is not have a safe study of economics and of industrial conditions, it is no exaggeration to say that this law is the most important one ever enacted for the protection of the workers of this state. The very fact that compensation must be paid will influence the employers to exercise every precaution to minimize accidents while the victims of unavoidable accidents
will be substantially compensated.
Neither is it an exaggeration to say that without the solidarity, power and influence, crystallized and utilized thru the instrumentality of our union, this law could not have been secured and this one attainment in itself is an emphatic denial of the truthfulness of the statements of those who allege that the United Mine Workers of America is not powerful and progressive. The passage of this law should commend our union to the unbounded support of every member and be an incentive for them to resolutely and loyally fight for the maintenance of its integrity and in defense of its every law and principle, and irresponsible, irrational, faultfinders, who show no appreciation of good done, but flout accredited authority and scoff at constituted principles, should be relegated to oblivion in our affairs so that a harmonious union may be had for the accomplishment of added attainments.

"To the joint labor lobby, headed by John H. Walker, our legal department, headed by A. W. Kerr and his associates, the members of our district executive board and to Gov.
Lowden, who sent a special message
to the legislature urging its passage,
and to the organized labor movement in general and the United Mine Workers of America, District 12, in particular, is due the credit for the enactment of this law. However, without the united, patient and intelligently directed endeavor of all its passage would not have been achieved.

No Legal Costs

"In this connection, you are also advised that your district executive board has entered into an arrangement with our legal department,
whereby our attorneys will handle
all compensation cases requiring legal attention without cost to the individual which means that our members and widows and dependents or members will have the best legal advice and yet retain every penny of the amount due them under the law, without any deductions whatever for legal advice and service. I think it proper that you should know that the Illinois Miners' Union is the only labor organization in the world that provides such service for its members.

"Just as soon as other work will permit Attorney Kerr will prepare and send out a pamphlet containing a quotation of the law and explaining its operation, and advising the procedure to be followed in order to derive the full benefits therefrom.

SHORTAGE OF LEATHER.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 10.—Grave problems arising from the shortage of leather are to be threshed out by the National Leather and Shoe Finders' Association at its annual convention which men in this city today.
According to the estimate of the trade experts the Government orders for military footwear this year will be sufficient in themselves to exhaust nearly every available scrap of leather in the market. How to increase the supply of leather or find a satisfactory substitute to be used for the ordinary trade is one of the big problems to be considered by the convention.

DEAN CORSA HAS U. S. A.
COMMISSION AS CAPTAIN

White Hall Man Will Serve in Engineering Corps—Great Interest in Red Cross Work—C. & A. Agent
Suggests Dairy Show.

White Hall, July 10.—W. S. Corsa attended the initial meeting of the Illinois department of agriculture at Springfield Monday. Mr. Corsa is an advisory member of the department, and the work under the new arrangement is being undertaken in a manner that portends the success of the consolidation scheme, at least so far as it affects the administration of the agricultural interests of the state.

The local Red Cross work is getting well under way with the assistance of a number of auxiliaries that means the accomplishment of a great amount of work. The aim is now to bring the membership up to 1,000 and then action will be taken to make the organization permanent.
The room occupied by the postoffice
will likely be secured when the postoffice is moved to the new quarters
in the Meyerstein building.

A departure from Red Cross work has been taken up by a group of young ladies of White Hall, the first meeting being held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dean Corsa and meetings will be held forthwith henceforth as long as there is need of their services. The young ladies comprising this group of workers consists of Misses Elizabeth Cor-
sa, Helen Worcester, Mary Ellis, Lucile Knox, Beulah Howard, Adelaide Foreman, Edith and Edna Baldwin. A number of visitors were present at the initial meeting to offer suggestions and instruction in making outfits for submarine sailors,
and their efforts will be confined to this line exclusively under the direction of the war department at Washington. The visiting ladies included Miss Elizabeth Brooks of Oklahoma City, Miss Jennette Davenport of Spokane, Mrs. H. W. Chapman, Mrs. A. E. Ewart and grandmother, Mrs. G. B. Danforth, Mrs.
A. D. Kunkel and Mrs. W. S. Corsa.
Miss Davenport is the guest of Mrs.
F. M. Winters. She is a Red Cross nurse, and spoke at length on the value and necessity of the work that has been taken up by these ladies.
Miss Brooks is the guest of Miss Elizabeth Corsa.

Mrs. Mabel Campbell spent Sunday in Jacksonville with her sister, Mrs. B. C. Lair.

W. C. Springgate and family arrived last week from Oshkosh, Wis.,
to spend a brief time with home folks. Mr. Springgate is engaged in the business college business.

Rev. W. R. Johnson was down from Winchester Monday.

Dr. E. B. Giller, who was reported to be seriously ill Sunday, was able to come down town Monday.

Harry Fry is again able to be about, following his serious accident at the city pumping station, the breaking of a belt rendering him unconscious and injuring his right arm and shoulder.

T. A. Chapin was down from Jacksonville the first of the week.

Ray Ozbun is here from East St.
Louis to spend the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Ozbun.

J. L. Harris of Chicago, general live stock agent of the Chicago &
Alton railroad, was in town Monday morning, and his visit gives much encouragement to the idea of holding a dairy demonstration at White Hall this year should the local people wish to take up the subject for action. The main hindrance now is just what part the state food department will take in it under the new arrangement of state administration affairs. Commissioner W.
Scott Matthews made a record of wonderful achievement in behalf of the dairy industry of the state during the Dunne administration.

Mrs. H. C. Morrow returned to St.
Louis Monday, after being the guest of Mrs. C. W. Chapman for a few days and calling on her numerous White Hall friends.

Dean Corsa received his commission Monday as captain in the engineering corps, U. S. A., and is now subject to orders from Washington.
He will be stationed at some training camp before going into active service. He is well-qualified for the duties, both from the standpoint of military and engineering training.
Besides having the management of Gregory Farm Laboratory, he has charge of the advertising and office work at Gregory Farm, and the fact that he volunteered enlistment shows a patriotic desire to serve the country in the capacity in which he is best fitted, at a sacrifice that makes his case one of heroism.

The remains of Mrs. George Haven were brought here last week for burial, services being held in the First Baptist church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and the interment was in the White Hall cemetery. She died at the family home in Normal, Illinois, on the 4th inst.,
after an illness of considerable length. She was a native of Wackerville township, southwest of White Hall, being the daughter of Nicholas Schier. There she was reared and became the wife of George Haven twenty-five years ago. They located in White Hall some fifteen years ago, and the past three years have been spent at Eldred, this county; Virginia, Cass county, and Normal, going to the latter place nearly two years ago. The husband and a daughter, Miss Grace, survive, the latter graduating from the White Hall high school and then taught in Greene county. She is quite well known as a teacher, and since locating at Normal she has been attending the State Normal University.

Mrs. Elmer Stout was called to Chicago Sunday by the death of her sister, Mrs. Ed. Cunningham. The Cunninghams formerly resided in White Hall, moving from here to Chicago ten or twelve years ago,
where the husband died two years ago. Two sons and a daughter survive. Her maiden name was Miss Della Carmody, a native of Berdan.

W. A. Graham of Peoria spent
Tuesday in the city on business.

MINNESOTA MINISTER FRIEND TO THOUSANDS

Rev. W. C. Pope, Who Died Recently in St. Paul, Widely Known for Uniting Christian Work—Pastor a Cousin of Jacksonville Woman.

From St. Paul, Minn., has come word of the death of the Rev. W. C. Pope, one of the well known gospel ministers of the northwest. Rev. Pope was a cousin of Mrs. S. O. Barr of this city. Rev. Mr. Pope was not only a man of eloquent address and spiritual power but was a writer of ability and has to his credit a number of well known church works.

A St. Paul paper in speaking of the passing of Rev. Mr. Pope says:

Not less than four generations of worshippers at the church of the Good Shepherd and thousands of friends in St. Paul and Minnesota mourn the death of Rev. William Cox Pope, founder of the little church with a big influence at Twelfth and Cedar streets, where the man in rags was always welcome.

And in his death at St. Luke's hospital at 11:50 p. m. yesterday, of pneumonia after an operation two weeks ago, the poor man lost a friendly advisor, for through the half-century Rev. Mr. Pope labored here his principle of ministrations was based on the motto painted over the altar he founded, and adopted from the book of James. It is this:

"If there come into your assembly a man with a gold ring in golden apparel, and there come also a poor man in vile raiment; and ye have respect for him that weareth the gay clothing and say unto him: 'sit thou here in a good place'; and say to the poor, 'stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool,' are ye not then partial in yourselves, and become judges of evil thoughts?"

Open-Air Evangelist.

Rev. Mr. Pope was not partial. The ideals he maintained in his church, where the pews always were free, likewise were expounded on the street corners, where for more than fifteen years he conducted open-air meetings every Monday evening.

While it was necessary for him to accept small material recompense in carrying out his ideals, Rev. Mr. Pope frequently declined more lucrative posts.

For sixty years Rev. Mr. Pope has been a familiar figure on St. Paul streets. He came to St. Paul a boy of 16, from Waukesha, Wis., where his parents lived for a time after coming west from Philadelphia where he was born April 21, 1841. In 1862 he was graduated from Racine college.

That summer the Indian outbreak occurred. Mr. Pope volunteered as soon as the trouble became known, and went with the expedition to the rescue of the settlers in the western part of the state. He performed many daring feats and was made a corporal.

Friend of Indians.

The Rev. Mr. Pope often said humorously in after life that his experience in soldiering has made a confirmed "bummer" of him, and that this accounted for his continuous activity as a missionary.

At the close of the Indian troubles he returned to Wisconsin and graduated from Nashotom seminary. His experience as a soldier probably gave him the inspiration for his later work as a missionary among the Indians, for he became a firm friend of the red men, and many of those who adopted civilized ways became affiliated either with the Church of the Good Shepherd or one of the many mission churches which he established.

For years he made it a practice to hold a special Christmas celebration for the benefit of these Indians in the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Rev. Mr. Pope was rector of a church at Waukesha, Wis., for a time immediately following his graduation from the theological seminary, but at the solicitation of the late Bishop Whipple he took up work in Minnesota in 1867. At the invitation of Rev. S. Y. McMaisters, rector of Christ church, he entered into co-operation with the latter.

He first held services in the old Mackubin block on Third street, about where the Minnesota club now stands. Later he arranged for the building of the Church of the Good Shepherd. The Mackubin block had been destroyed by fire.

From that day until the time of his death, he presided over the same church. As St. Paul grew, his activities extended. He organized the Church of the Ascension, on the west side, of which Rev. A. G. Pinkham is now rector, and many missions in various parts of the city.

Two services daily were held in his church, which he designated as a place of worship rather than merely a place to preach.

Rev. Mr. Pope was an author of church works, one of his best known efforts being the compilation of the history of the Episcopal church in St. Paul.

He was a characteristic figure at Seventh and Cedar streets, where for many years he conducted open-air meetings. Gray haired, gray bearded, clear blue eyes, usually hatless during his street service, garbed in a black frock, belted with a black silk cord, he made a distinguished appearance.

The funeral will be held from the church, Cedar and Twelfth streets, Saturday. The hour has not been fixed. In accordance with the expressed wish of Rev. Mr. Pope there will be no sermon, but a simple communion service, conducted by Rev. A. G. Pinkham.

Burial will be at Oakland cemetery.

Mrs. Pope is so seriously ill that she has not been told of her husband's death.

Rev. Mr. Pope is survived by widow, two sons, Easton and Charles and a daughter Emily, all living at home. Two sisters also survive, Mrs. M. D. Mann of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mrs. Gervais Purcell of San Gabriel, Cal. E. D. Litchfield of New York, architect of the St. Paul Public Library, is a nephew.

WOMEN IN THE DAY'S NEWS

Miss Winifred McLaughlin of Gosham, N. H., is the first New Hampshire woman to pass the bar examination and be admitted to the practice of law in that State under the new law. Other women have been permitted to practice in New Hampshire but only thru reciprocity agreements with other states.

Miss Elizabeth C. Harris, a daughter of former Congressman Robert O. Harris of Massachusetts who acted as his secretary during his term in the House, has just been admitted to the bar of the District of Columbia. She is the third generation of her family to be allowed to practice before the United States Supreme Court.

Mrs. Edith Miller of Wakefield, Mass., will enter Simmons College, Boston, this fall at the age of 15, the youngest freshman ever admitted to the institution. Miss Miller is the daughter of Mrs. Edwin C. Miller, a member of the Wakefield school board who had been an earnest advocate of mid-year promotions for bright pupils, and who has carefully watched her daughter's progress with "double promotions."

Mrs. Annie Besant, the famous theosophist leader, who resides in Madras, has been forbidden by the Indian Government to participate in any meetings, deliver lectures or to publish her writings, as a sequel to a violent home rule agitation which was marked by vilification of every British and western. Mrs. Besant, who formerly lived in Bombay, was expelled from that presidency last year for preaching revolt in India. The aged leader is now 70 years old, but apparently as vigorous in mind and methods as ever.

The American Red Cross has no more devoted servant in Illinois than Miss Virginia Cannon Le Seure, a granddaughter of Uncle Joe Cannon, former speaker of the house and the present dean of Congress. It is said that Uncle Joe never stumped his home county with more ginger and success than Miss Virginia touring the State in a motor car and making speeches to recruit workers for the Red Cross. She rallied to the cause not only a great number of her friends in social circles, but girls in offices and women in humble homes.

Emma Goldman, recently arrested in New York for her anti-conscription activities, is America's most famous woman anarchist. She was born in Russia in 1866, of Jewish parents. She was married when about twenty to a Jew named Gruenbaum, in Rochester, N. Y., but lived with her husband less than two years. During that period, she came under the influence of Louis Bernstein, an anarchist leader, and went to New York. She dropped her husband's name and went by the name of Goldstein, her maiden name, which she later modified into that of Goldman. The latter she has made famous in two hemispheres. In 1906, at the time when Alexander Berkman, her companion in the recent arrest in New York, and then as now one of the leading Anarchists of New York, was released from prison for the shooting of Henry C. Frick, Emma Goldman and Berkman announced to their friends that they had taken each other as husband and wife, without further legality. The partnership has not since been dissolved.

Business women from all over the United States will invade Chicago this week for their first annual convention, to be held July 12, 13 and 14 under the auspices of the Woman's Association of Commerce. Miss Florence King, a brilliant Chicago attorney, is president of the Association, which has been in existence in the Middle western metropolis for five years. The purpose of the convention is now to unify all the branches of the organization which have sprung up since in various parts of the country, and which number 25 States among their fields of activity, into one big national organization. A further object of the gathering of business women will be their mobilization for war work, to consider plans whereby every business woman in the United States may be at the nation's call at a moment's notice. The aim of the Association will be to fill positions left empty by the men called to the colors, with women thereby keeping the wheels of business running smoothly and also benefitting the women themselves with the assurance of desirable employment. After the war, gigantic problems will also arise in the solution of which this end will be discussed. Franklin K. Lane, United States Secretary of the Interior, will address the business women.

COUNTY'S FIRST MURDER TRIAL

Steele, N. D., July 10.—Country folk for miles around flocked to town today for the scheduled opening of the first murder trial in the history of Kidder county. The defendant in the case is Olson Nash, accused of the murder of Clyde Hicks, who was killed in a lonely shack near Robinson last December. Following the killing, Nash fled in the teeth of a blinding blizzard, and for days wandered on the open prairie. He lost his way and one night tumbled into the shack where Hicks had been killed days before. That night he gave himself up to a sheriff and was hurried to a hospital where both feet were amputated. Old timers say there have been other murders in the county, but no trial ever took place.

INDIANA TRAP SHOOT.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 10.—Prominent marksmen from half a dozen States faced the traps at the local gun club today at the opening of the annual championship trap-shooting tournament of the Indiana State Sportsmen's Association. The program of the tournament covers three days and will conclude with the title events on Thursday.

Mother Why Don't You Take Nuxated Iron

And Be Strong and Well and Have Nice Rosy Cheeks Instead of Being Nervous and Irritable All the time and Looking So Haggard and Old?—The Doctor Gave Some to Susie Smith's Mother and She Was Worse Off Than You are and Now She Looks Just Fine.

NUXATED IRON WILL INCREASE THE STRENGTH AND ENDURANCE OF WEAK, NERVOUS, CAREWORN, HAGGARD LOOKING WOMEN 100 PER CENT IN TWO WEEKS' TIME IN MANY INSTANCES

THE CHILD'S APPEAL

"There can be no Beautiful, Healthy Rosy Cheeked women without Iron."

F. KING, M. D.

"There can be no healthy, beautiful, rosy cheeked women without iron," says Dr. Ferdinand King, a New York physician and medical author. "In my recent talks to physicians on the grave and serious consequences of iron deficiency in the blood of American women, I have strongly emphasized the fact that doctors should prescribe more organic iron—for their nervous, run-down, pale, haggard looking women patients. Pale means anemic. The skin of the anemic woman is pale, the flesh flabby. The muscles lack tone, the brain fails and the memory fails, and often they become weak, nervous, irritable, despondent and melancholy. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the roses go from their cheeks."

"In the most common foods of America, the starches, sugars, table syrups, candies, polished rice, white bread, soda crackers, biscuits, macaroni, spaghetti, tapioca, sago, farina, degenerated cornmeal, no longer is iron to be found. Refining processes have removed the iron of Mother Earth from these impoverished foods, and silly methods of home cooking, by throwing down the waste pipe the water in which our vegetables are cooked are responsible for another grave iron loss."

"Therefore, if you wish to preserve your youthful vim and vigor to a ripe old age, you must supply the iron deficiency in your food by using some form of organic iron, just as you would use salt when your food has not enough salt."

"As I have said a hundred times over, organic iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only take Nuxated Iron when they feel weak or run-down, instead of dosing themselves with habit-forming drugs, stimulants and alcoholic beverages I am convinced that in this way they could ward off disease, preventing it becoming organic in thousands of cases and thereby the lives of thousands might be saved who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, kidney, liver, heart trouble and other dangerous maladies. The real and true cause which started their disease was nothing more nor less than a weakened condition brought on by lack of iron in the blood.

On account of the peculiar nature of woman, and the great drain placed upon her system at certain periods, she requires iron much more than man to help make up for the loss.

Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it, and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking, just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while double their strength and endurance and entirely rid themselves of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles, in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this, after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate, or iron

Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author, tells physicians that they should prescribe more organic iron—Nuxated Iron—for their patients—Says anæmia—iron deficiency—is the greatest curse to the health, strength, vitality and beauty of the modern American Woman.—Sounds warning against use of metallic iron.

ture of iron simply to save a few cents. The iron demanded by Mother Nature for the red coloring matter in the blood of her children, is alas! not that kind of iron. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. I have used Nuxated Iron widely in my own practice in most severe aggravated conditions with unfailing results. I have induced many other physicians to give it a trial all of whom have given me most surprising reports in regard to its great power as a health and strength builder.

Dr. Schuyler C. Jaques, visiting surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York City said, "I have never before given out any medical information or advice for publication as I ordinarily do not believe in it. But so many American women suffer from iron deficiency with its attendant ills—physical weakness, nervous irritability, melancholy, indigestion, flabby, sagging muscles, etc., etc., and in consequence of their weakened run-down condition they are so liable to contract serious and even fatal diseases that I deem it my duty to advise such to take Nuxated Iron. I have taken it myself and given it to my patients with most surprising and satisfactory results. And those who wish quickly to increase their strength, power and endurance will find it a most remarkable and wonderfully effective remedy."

NOTE—Nuxated Iron which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians in such a great variety of cases, is not a patent medicine or secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians both in Europe and America. Unlike the other inorganic iron products it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy in nearly all forms of indigestion as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in nuxated iron, that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron, and increase their strength 100 per cent, or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by all good druggists.—Gilbert's Pharmacy, J. A.
